

The Australian Training Awards

Transcript of Visual Presentation

Narrator – Every year the very best apprentices, trainees, vocational students, teachers, training providers and employers from around the country come together to celebrate their success at the Australian Training Awards.

Narrator They're already the best in their own state or territory and are now competing nationally, to become the best in Australia.

Narrator – The awards have 12 categories ranging from Apprentice of the Year, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Student of the Year through to Large Training Provider and Employer of the Year.

Award presenter – “The winner of the Vocational Student of the Year is...Michael Hogan.”

Michael Hogan, “I'm absolutely ecstatic to be receiving this award today after a brilliant week spent with the other finalists from all the states, getting to know everyone, networking, it's been fantastic.”

Narrator - It's not just about recognition- it's about the life changing opportunities available through vocational education and training. Stories of career achievement and the endless advantages of training for the workplace.

Award presenter “The winner of the Small Trainer Provider of the Year... is Industrylink”,

Industrylink - “This is the second time in four years we've made it to the nationals....This is a very proud moment for us.”

Narrator - This year the Australian Training Awards introduce a new component, the National Focus Awards, which will showcase Australia's national priorities in the vocational education and training sector.

Gabriella Morona, “I just feel so honored to be named the winner as such but I think we're all winners in our own right. Ordinary people can do amazing things.”
