Non-Government Schools Census 2006

Overview

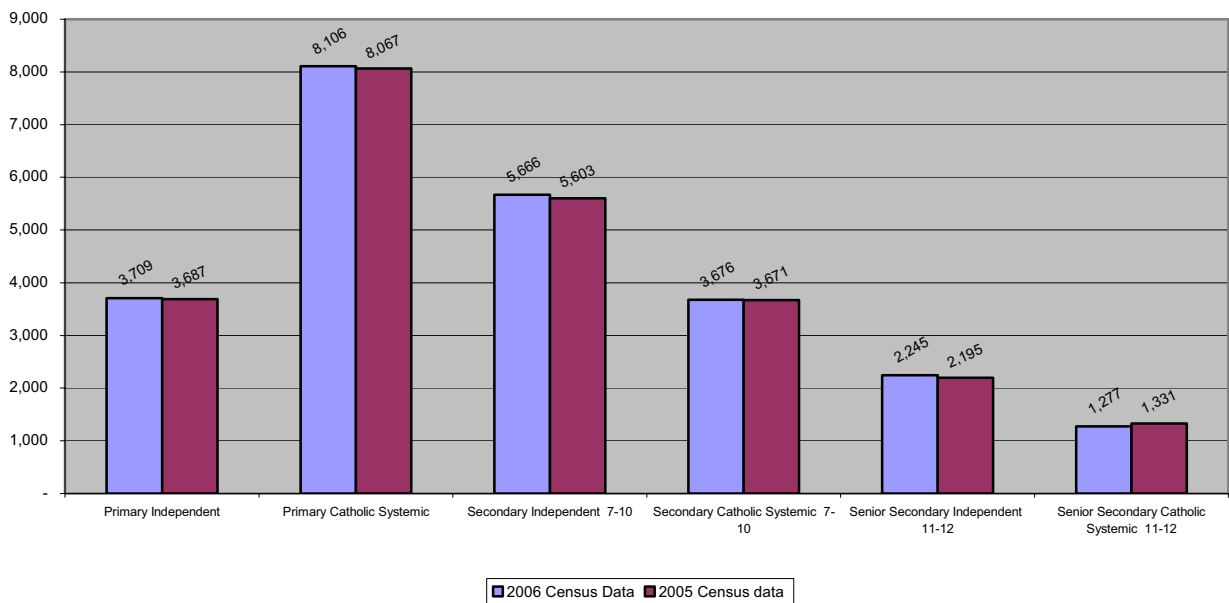

The Non-Government Schools Census of Student Enrolments was conducted on 22 February 2006. The census was conducted across the 44 non-government schools. In 2006 Burgmann Anglican School offered an extended educational level, Year 10.

The census data collected included information on year level, gender, Indigenous students, students with disabilities, international students and the region in which students reside.

Enrolment Numbers

Overall there has been an increase of 125 students in the non-government sector from 24,554 in 2005 to 24,679 in 2006. This represents an increase of 0.5% across the sector. There has been an overall increase of 135 independent school students or 1.2%. This year's figure has seen an overall decrease of 10 students attending Catholic systemic schools.

Growth in Non-Government Schools Sector

Primary School Enrolments

A total of 11,815 students attended 38 non-government schools in the primary sector. This is an increase of 61 students on 2005 census figures.

The primary school sector experienced an increase in enrolments in independent schools of 22 students (0.6%) and an increase in Catholic systemic schools of 39 students (0.5%).

Secondary School Enrolments

A total of 12,864 students attend 17 non-government schools in the secondary sector (Yrs 7-12). This is an increase of 64 students on 2005 census figures.

The secondary sector experienced an increase in enrolments in independent schools of 113 students (1.4%) and a decrease in Catholic systemic schools of 49 students (1.0%) compared to 2005 census data.

There are 9,342 students enrolled in Years 7-10, which include 24 ungraded students attending the Galilee School. This is an increase of 68 students from 2005. 5,666 students attend independent schools and 3,676 students attend Catholic systemic schools in years 7-10. Enrolments in independent schools increased by 63 students (1.1%) and increased in Catholic systemic schools by 5 students (0.1%).

The senior secondary sector (Years 11-12) has 3,522 enrolled students. This includes 2,245 in independent schools and 1,277 in Catholic systemic schools. Catholic systemic schools decreased enrolments by 54 students (-4.1%) and independent schools increased enrolments by 50 students (2.3%) from 2005 to 2006.

Students with Disabilities

This year students with a disability include students who have been appraised using SCAN (Student Centred Assessment of Needs) and those awaiting appraisal. There are 329 students with a disability in the non-government sector. This is an increase of 26 students on February 2005 SCAN figures.

Of these, 167 students attend primary schools (K-6) and 162 are in the secondary sector (Years 7-12).

There are 76 students with disabilities in the independent sector and 253 attending Catholic congregational and systemic schools.

Indigenous Students

There are 212 Indigenous students undertaking education in the non-government sector, an increase of 5 (2%) on 2005 figures.

Of the Indigenous students, 108 students attend primary schools and 104 attend secondary schools.

161 Indigenous students attending non-government schools attend Catholic systemic schools, with 97 of these attending primary schools.

International Students

In 2006 56 international students are enrolled at ACT non-government schools.

There are 32 students at secondary schools (Years 7-12) and 24 are enrolled at primary schools. The primary figure is twice that of the 2005 figure of 12 due to one independent primary school enrolling a large number of international students.

The number of international students studying in Years 11-12 has continued to decrease from 27 in 2004 to 24 in 2005 and 16 in 2006.

Region

Of the 24,679 students attending non-government schools in the ACT in the 2006 census, 31 % reside in the Tuggeranong region, 19% reside in the Belconnen area and 12% of students reside in NSW.
